25 Things to Ask Yourself as you plan your Wedding

1. Where are the bride and groom getting ready?
2. Is hair and makeup team coming to you or are you going to a salon?
3. What time is the bride's hair and makeup scheduled to start?
4. Do you plan on doing a first look? If so, where?
5. Do you have any spots in mind where you would like to do wedding party and bride and groom photos?
6. How many people do you want in your wedding party?
7. Do you have any "must-have" photographs? (Specific poses beyond what is typically captured on a wedding day)
8. Where is your ceremony taking place?
9. What time will your ceremony start and how long do you expect it to last?
10. Are there any specific rules for your ceremony?
11. Are you doing a receiving line after your ceremony?

12. Are you doing a formal exit from the ceremony? If so, what type?
13. What type of transportation will you have between ceremony and reception (if in different location)?
14. Is your reception going to be offsite from the ceremony?
15. Will you be having a cocktail hour?
16. What time do you need to be at your reception for introductions?
17. What is the order of events at your reception?
18. Are you having sit down, buffet, or family-style dinner?
19. Are you planning any special/unusual parts of your wedding day you'll need to make others aware of?
20. Are there any special family circumstances that the planners should be aware of? (divorces, deaths, dramas, etc)
21. Are there any additional family groupings you would like during family photo time outside of the immediate family list?
22. Are you working with a planner?
23. Who is your DJ or band?
24. Do you have a videographer?
25. Do you have a wedding hashtag?
